

THE LOVE REMAINS

A Historical Novel – 2nd Edition
by Katherine Kama'ema'e Smith

In the tradition of Michener, The Love Remains chronicles the romance and drama of 19th century Maui through the life of Kale Davis, the last ruling Hawaiian Chiefess of Honokahua, the land now known as Kapalua Resort.

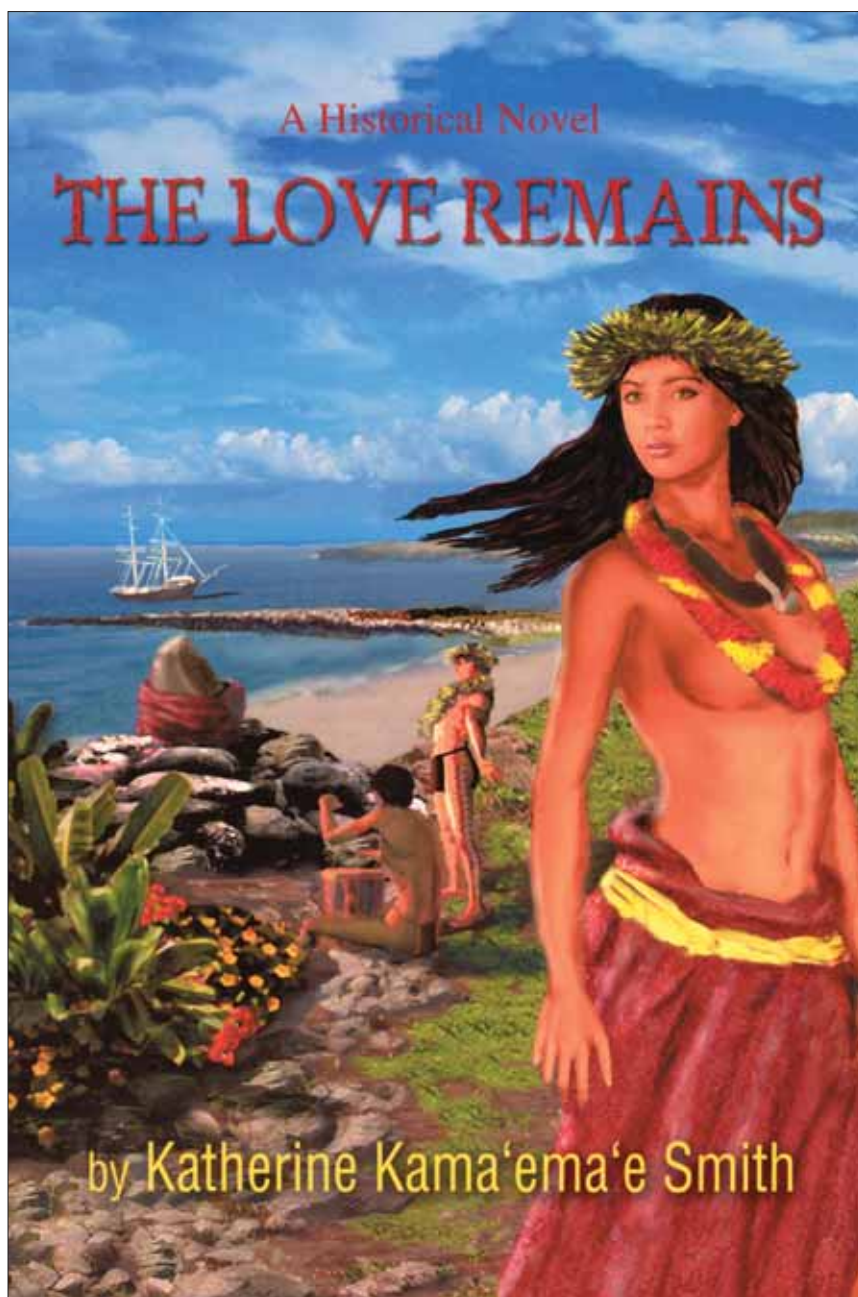

In 1817, 20 year old Kale Davis flees a broken marriage, hoping Honokahua Maui will be her refuge and a place of belonging. Instead, this poor fishing and farming village awarded to Kale's late father by Kamehameha the Great, makes far greater demands—and offers much sweeter rewards—than the young chiefess could ever imagine.

Torn between her Hawaiian and Caucasian roots, uncertain about her abilities and unprepared for leadership, Kale can offer only her keen intelligence, deep love for the land, and solemn oath to rule righteously. With help from her five husbands, Kale leads Honokahua through drought, famine, epidemics and a time of frenetic change that threatens to sweep away a millennia-old culture.

Even as Honokahua and her people thrive, Kale endures personal heartbreak and sacrifice, and finds strength in her God and ancestors to find spiritual completeness and enduring love.

Katherine Smith fell in love with Hawaiian culture and Maui, and retired to Kapalua Resort in 1993 with her husband Harry. Formerly a technical writer and marketing manager at Johnson & Johnson's Ortho Diagnostics and Ortho Biotech divisions, she has written ad copy and radio spots for the PGA Senior Tour Championship, and press releases for the Art School at Kapalua. At the urging of fellow authors and after much research, she followed her dream to tell the story of the last Hawaiians of Honokahua, Maui in her novel, The Love Remains.

SPECIFICATIONS:

$17.95

ISBN: 0972342052

EAN: 9780972342056

Entry Code: 342052

Case Qty: 34, Softcover

276 pages, 6.0" x 9.0" x 0.6"

Published: November 2006

Publisher: Honu Publications

Printed in the USA

The Islander Group

The Islander Group • 269 Pali'i Street Mililani, HI 96789 • Tel: (808) 676-0116 • Fax: (808) 676-0634
visit us at www.booklineshawaii.com